

Name:- Hanmant Jadhav
Roll :- 71004
Dept:- Fy<sup>sem</sup> Tech Comp.
25/04/2025

Assignment ③

Reflection report on Article 15 (2019) -

Understanding human Right's and Duties.

① Introduction :-

Article 15 (2019) is a powerful socio-political drama inspired by real-life incidents of cast-based discrimination in India.

The movie is directly connected to essence of fundamental rights guaranteed by Indian Constitution, especially the Right to Equality.

This report explores how Article 15 enhances our understanding of human rights, social justice and the duties of every citizen toward inclusive society.

② Summary of the movie.

The story follows Ayan Rajan, an IPS officer posted in a small Uttar Pradesh town, who is shaken by the brutallyn murder of two lower-caste girls. His journey through deep entrenched caste system, systemic corruption and social apathy from the core of narrative. The major theme explored include cast-based discrimination, dignity of life, social reformers and justice.

③ Analysis of fundamental Rights and Duties in the Movie:

① Right to equality (Article 14-18) -

The movie starkly highlights cast-based injustice, showcasing how Dalits are treated unequally. Ayan challenges these discriminations practices and emphasizes the need to uphold the constitutional right to equality.

② Right to life and personal liberty. (Article -21)

The violation of basic dignity and security of marginalized communities depicted in the movie underlines the urgent need to ensure these fundamental rights are respected and protected.

③ Right against the exploitation (Article 23-24).

The film showcase the instances of the bonded labour and exploitation emphasizing the constitutional provision against the human trafficking and forced labour.

④ Fundamental Duties (Article 51A).

Ayan Rajan acts in accordance with several fundamental duties including the promoting harmony renouncing practices derogatory to dignity of women and striving towards excellence to serve the nation better.

⑤ Personal Reflection:-

The movie article is deeply moved me and opened my eyes to the harsh realities that many still face in modern India. Ayan's courageous stand against entrenched social evils, despite bureaucratic pressure and was practically inspiring. It taught me that real change demands courage, empathy and persistent action, even when system resist it.

⑤ Action plan and Conclusion -

Article is movie motivated me to reflect on how I can contribute eradicating social inequalities.

- ① Educating myself and others about caste and discrimination issue.
- ② Speaking up against injustice and supporting marginalized communities
- ③ Volunteering for initiatives aimed at promoting equality and human rights.

Conclusion -

Article-15 is compelling reminder that the ideals enshrined in the constitution must not just exist on paper but be actively realized through collective efforts. It stresses that safeguarding human rights is not just govt responsibility but citizen fundamental duty as